

SINGLE HARVEST TAWNIES

1940

The deep orange-brown color reflects the concentration of almost eighty years ageing in cask. Complex aromas of caramel, praline chocolate, demerara and coffee roast are underpinned by a remarkable freshness, which belies the eight decades in seasoned oak. The palate is creamy, luxurious and intense with a long aftertaste offering layers of walnuts, citrus preserves and honey, while tea and tobacco notes linger in the glass.

The Master

1963

Intense, deep amber color. This exquisite multi-layered wine reveals delicate citrus aromas with hints of honeysuckle, black tea and fennel. It is smooth as silk on the palate, showing hints of almonds and walnuts, fruitcake and a soft toffee undertone with a slight minty edge. The finish is unctuous and long with a lingering, exquisite aftertaste.

The Artisan

1972

Rich golden amber color with some garnet reflections in the center. Mesmerizing aromas with delicate floral qualities of honeysuckle, vanilla and undertones of caramel. Deliciously concentrated with a smooth silky texture highlighted by exotic spices and butterscotch. This richness is balanced by a firm refreshing acidity leading to an endless finish.

1994

Amber brown Tawny color, amazingly intense and deep. Rose petal, oriental spice and toasted honey, overlaid by sweet balsamic & dried fig aromatics. Full bodied, still with fresh blue & black berry flavors. Delicate toasted coffee finish. Beautifully fresh, very intense & lingering flavors. Shows superb structure, balance and finesse.
