

Limited Edition Case

As a celebration of the unique terroir of one of the Symingtons' most renowned estates – Quinta do Vesúvio – the family are releasing a limited edition case, containing three bottles of Vintage Port from the property: 2019, 2009 & 1999. Separated by a decade, these Vintage Ports show the incredible aging potential of the wines from this estate. Quinta do Vesúvio is situated in the Douro Superior and consistently delivers outstanding Vintage Port with a unique expression from each year.

1999

Deep ruby color, with scents of violets, black cherry and blackcurrant fruit. The palate expresses superb ripe fruit and hints of bittersweet chocolate balanced by a powerful, fine tannins.

94 Pts, Wine & Spirits, 2002

2009

Stemmy and herbal on the nose; inky black, powerful and very substantial. Mouth-filling, brambly fruit invades the palate, some dark chocolate tones.

98 Pts, Wine Spectator, 2012

2019

Blackcurrant and lavender aromas with traces of fennel. Mouth-filling ripe black fruit flavors; opulent and velvety, with volume and weighty structure.

96 Pts, Wine Spectator, 2021